DEDICATED

To My Mother
JANET OVERTURF JOHNSON
through whose efforts I became interested in genealogy and

To My Father
CHARLES MORRIS JOHNSON who helped me carry through my plans for this book

ROBERT BOX HELM AND SARAH REED HELM

Robert Box Helm was born in Owen Co. Indiana, February 11, 1844 being the oldest of seven children. After moving with his parents to Iowa and Kansas and back to Illinois, he enlisted in Co. E. 79th Illinois Infantry for three years. He was taken prisoner Sept. 19, 1863, at Chickamauga being held for twelve months in Andersonville Prison and six months in others: being honorably discharged in August, 1865.

While in prison he would ask the guards to give him bones, carving many odd trinkets from them, these now being in the possession of his son, Robert Box Helm of Camargo, Douglas Co., Illinois.

Robert Box Helm and Sarah Reed, daughter of Benjamin Franklin Reed, of Douglas Co., Illinois, were married March, 1871. In 1869 Robert Box Helm bought land south of Murdock Douglas Co., Illinois, with the money the government saved for him while he was a prisoner.

About 1902 Robert and Sarah moved from their farm into Murdock, Illinois building a new home but only living there a short time. Robert Box Helm passed away on August 22, 1910.

The funeral services were held at the Murdock Methodist Church, Rev. W.D. Fairchild having charge. Robert and Sarah had been faithful members of the church for many years.

After his death Sarah Reed Helm lived in the home in Murdock, Illinois, until it was destroyed by fire, then moving to Camargo, Illinois, where she passed away May 10, 1935. She remained young in heart eager to see those she cared for and loved and respected by her grandchildren.

Both Robert and Sarah Helm are buried in the Murdock, Illinois cemetery.

I, Rosa Belle Helm Overturf, of Camargo, Douglas Co., state of Illinois, do hereby certify that this sheet is a page from the family Bible belonging to my grandparents, John Tipton Helm and his wife Permelia Palmer Helm. As my grandparents lived in my fathers home, I remember as a girl of 18 years, this Bible laying on the table in their bedroom. Later this Bible was taken by John Tipton Helm to the home of his daughter, Phoebe Helm Hessler, where he died. This page was retained as a part of the Bible of my father, Robert Box Helm. This page is now in the possession of Mrs. Lewis Romack, 3 Hillcrest Court, Rock Island, Illinois.

JOHN TIPTON HELM AND PERMELIA (PALMER) HELM

John Tipton Helm was born March 5, 1820, in Kentucky and at about the age of twelve moved with his parents to Owen Co., Indiana. Here he grew to manhood and on February 23, 1842, bought of his brother, William Helm, eighty acres of land for $200.00. It being the west half of the southwest quarter of section #16 in township #11 north of range #4 west. (1)

John Tipton and Permelia (Palmer) Helm, daughter of Joshua Palmer, were married on affidavit by James Beaman, Justice of the Peace on February 2, 1843, in Owen Co., Indiana.

In 1855 they moved from Owen Co. Indiana to Webster Co., Iowa, where they remained until 1859, then moving to the state of Kansas. In the fall of 1860 the family moved to Douglas Co. Illinois where for several years John Tipton and Permelia Helm lived on a farm (2)

In their later years they lived with their son, Robert Box Helm, until Permelia's death in February 20, 1896. John Tipton continued to live with them until about two years before his death. He then went to live with his daughter Mrs. Phoebe Hessler, of Coffeyville, Kansas. He passed away there on December 24, 1910 and was brought back and buried in the Pleasant Grove cemetery near Brushey Fork, Illinois. (2)

As a young man he was converted and joined the Methodist Church and at his own request Rev. D.C. Burkitt was to conduct his funeral services assisted by Rev. J.M. Goodspeed an old time friend of the family.

John Tipton Helm and Permelia Palmer Helm were among the old settlers of Douglas Co. Illinois, and many of their descendants are still living in the area today. (2)

THOMAS AND RACHEL HELM

The record of Thomas and Rachel Helm is limited but we can present certain facts on their life. They were members of a group of people who came from Tennessee into Kentucky. Their son, John Tipton Helm was born while they lived in Kentucky. Later this group migrated into Owen County, Indiana and formed a community known as the Jordan Settlement. We visited this area and found the old Church still standing. Services are no longer held regularly but they are attempting to preserve the old Church. Their daughter Lydia was baptized and her baptismal record is in the official register of the Church. There is a cemetery in the Church yard but we were unable to find tombstones of our family. There is another cemetery near a village of Cataract with many graves marked only with slabs of limestone. Again we were unable to find any record of our ancestors.

The records in the Owen County courthouse show that Thomas Helm entered land in the Jordan Settlement (1) in 1832. His son-in-law, James Cook, secured land in the same vicinity. George W. Helm, son of Thomas Helm came to Jordan settlement with his father.

We do not know the exact birth date of Thomas Helm but the records in Owen County show he was exempt from paying poll tax in 1832 as he was over 60 years old. (2)

There is a record at the Receivers Office at Vincinnes, Indiana, showing he bought land and paid at the rate of $1.25 per acre. In that early time the official records were kept at Vincinnes. "#4836 January 6, 1833 Receivers Office at Vincinnes, Indiana May 23, 1833. Received from Thomas Helm of Owen County the sum of $50.00 being in full for the N.E. Quarter of the S.E. Quarter of section #12 north of range #4 and held at the rate of $1.25 per acre. Signed J. Woolverton, Receiver."

Beatty L. Johnson, born Feb. 17, 1860, his parents being James and Lucinda (Galloway) Johnson. His father's birth occurred in Putnam, near Zanesville, in 1816, and he was a son of Richard and Eliza (Metseeger) Johnson. Richard Johnson was born July 31, 1800, in Maryland, and removed from his native state to Putnam, where he settled about 1814. He was a cooper and worked at his trade for several years. Later he located on a farm of 166 acres near Salem church, in the S. E. corner of Salem Township, and there he spent his remaining days, becoming one of the enterprising and reliable agriculturalists of his community. Still farther back, however, the ancestry of the family can be traced. Joshua Johnson, the great grandfather, was born in Maryland, March 19, 1797. On the 26th of Oct., 1887, Mr. Johnson was united in marriage to Miss Phoebe E. Spragg, who was born in Salem Township, Apr. 23, 1864, and is a daughter of Philip and Mary (Edwards) Spragg. Her father was born on the farm where he how resides and his father was Benaja Spragg, who came to Ohio from Pa.

JOSEPH H. MORRIS

Joseph H. Morris (deceased) was born at Raidner, Raidner Shire, England, May 7, 1833, the son of John and Jane Morris, and grew to manhood on the parental homestead. On March 25, 1856, being then in his twenty-third year, he left his native country for the United States, and on April 27th of the same year arrived at Columbus, Ohio, where he found employment with a farmer and mill-owner at $7 a month, but by giving strict attention to duties his wages were increased from time to time. On September 15, 1859, he was married to Miss Nancy Jane Spragg, of Otsego, Ohio, where they resided until 1864, when they came overland to Illinois, arriving in Edgar County on March 7 of the latter year, and first settled on the McCollum farm near Redman. In 1868 Mr. Morris purchased his first farm consisting of eighty acres two miles north of Paris, and to this he made subsequent additions until at the time of his death his holdings embraced 640 acres. Mr. and Mrs. Morris were the parents of eleven children, of whom eight are now living; two died in infancy, and a daughter Ella, died several years ago. Their surviving children are: Mrs. Ida C. Fell, Mrs. Ettie Goble, Mrs. Hattie Collier, Hiram W., Guy, Lulu, Oscar and Kyle. Mr. Morris was well known throughout Central Illinois as a model farmer and a successful stock-raiser, while his acquaintance among stockmen extended over Illinois and adjoining states. As a neighbor and citizen he was highly esteemed for his sterling qualities, and his cordial greeting will be missed by many who numbered him among their valued friends as well as the home fireside.

JOSEPH E. JOHNSON

While he is still a young man, the career of Joseph E. Johnson has been one filled with successful participation in a number of ventures, and in its range and activities has invaded the fields of both commerce and finance. In the former direction he is at the head of a grain and lumber business that is recognized as one of the necessary commerical adjuncts of Broadlands, and in the latter capacity he is cashier of the Bank of Broadlands and a man of much financial knowledge and ability. Likewise, Mr. Johnson is a citizen who has spent his entire life at Broadlands, is well acquainted with its needs in a civic way, and has always been eager to further its interests.

Joseph E. Johnson was born at Broadlands, Champaign County, Illinois, September 11, 1881, and is a son of Charles J. and Barbara (Mack) Johnson, the former a native of Sweden and the latter of Bohemia. Charles J. Johnson was about at his majority when he immigrated to the United States in 1877, and his first location was on a farm in Ayers Township, Champaign County. During the remaining active years of his career he continued to follow agricultural pursuits with much success, but recently has retired and he and Mrs. Johnson are living at Broadlands, in the enjoyment of all the comforts and conveniences which may be won through industry and right living. They are the parents of three children: Anna, the wife of Ira Laverick, who is engaged in farming in Ayers Township; Joseph E. of this notice; and William H. who is engaged in farming in Douglas County.

After attending the public schools of the vicinity of his home Joseph E. Johnson further prepared himself by taking a course at Brown's Business College at Champaign. While a youth he had thoroughly learned the business of farming through assisting his father during the summer months, and when his commercial course was completed he returned to the homestead, where he spent five years at the vocation of agriculturist. He then decided to put his business training to some use, and coming to Broadlands, entered the Bank of Broadlands as bookkeeper. He retained this position for three years, when, because of his general ability, fidelity and industry, on January 1, 1917, he was given the post of cashier and still retains this office. In the meantime, during the time he was acting as bookkeeper, he had entered commerical affairs on his own account, having founded a lumber, coal, and grain business, which he built up to large proportions. After assuming the duties of cashier Mr. Johnson found that his responsibilities were too heavy and he was compelled to drop the coal business, although he still handles lumber and grain in large quantities. He is one of his community's sound and substantial business men, and his personal probity of character has done much to increase the business of the bank with which he is connected. He is a Republican, but not a politician or office seeker, is fraternally identified with the Masons, and his religious connection is with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

JOSEPH E. JOHNSON (CON'T)

Mr. Johnson was married February 10, 1904, to Miss Lulu D. Morris, and to this union has come one son, Charles Morris, born October 2, 1909, and now attending the public schools.

R. B. HELM

R. B. Helm, farmer, was born in Own Co., Ind., Feb. 11, 1844; is the son of John T. and Permelia (Palmer) Helm; he is the eldest in a family of seven children, and is of English descent. The father of Mr. Helm was born in Kentucky and his mother in Ind. When the subject of our sketch was eleven years of age, he removed with his parents from Ind. to Webster Co., Iowa, and there remained until 1859, and then went to Kansas, and in the fall of 1860 the family came to Douglas Co., Ill. In July, 1862, Mr. Helm enlisted in the United States Army, Company E., 79th Illinois Infantry, for three years. He was taken prisoner Sept. 19, 1863, at Chickamauga; was a prisoner of war eighteen months -- twelve months in Andersonville, and six months in other prisons; he was honorably discharged in August 1865; his marriage took place in March, 1871, to Miss Margaret Reed. Mrs. Helm is a native of Douglas Co., Ill. To this union have been born six children, four living -- Ora M., Rosa B., Mary P. and Permelia. In 1869, Mr. Helm purchased his present place of residence; he now owns almost a section of well-improved land. In 1880, he began tile-draining. Politically, Mr. Helm is a true Republican, and cast his first Presidential vote for Grant. Mr. and Mrs. Helm are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church; he was a good soldier, is a leading farmer and prominent citizen of Douglas Co., and began life with what money the Government saved for him while he was prisoner of war.

ROBERT BOX HELM

Helm, Robert B. - Some of the most honored residents of the smaller towns and villages of Douglas County, Ill., are men who have retired from adjacent farms, and now have time to devote themselves to civic improvement. Robert B. Helm, a retired farmer of Murdock Village Murdock Township belongs to this class. He was born in Owen County, Ind., February 11, 1844, a son of John T. and Permelia (Palmer) Helm. John T. Helm was born in Kentucky, March 10, 1820 and is now a resident of Coffeyville, Kansas, where he has recently gone to reside with his daughter Mrs. Phoebe Angeline Hesler. The mother was born in Indiana in 1822 and died in Murdock Village, in 1894. John T. Helm went to Owen County, Ind., with his parents, when a boy and there met and married his wife. In 1856 he with his wife and children emigrated in a covered wagon to Webster Co., Iowa and then went to Kansas for a year, but in 1861 they came to Illinois, and in 1862 the father bought 200 acres of partly improved land in Bowdre Township, Douglas County. The price of this was $11 per acre, and on this farm the family lived in a small frame house which had been there at the time of purchase. John T. Helm cleared off a portion of the timber on his farm, and made a few improvements, contin-- uing to make it his home until 1881, when he sold it to his son, Robert B. Helm, and moved to Murdock Village. Later he made his home in Tuscola Township for a short time, then returned to Murdock Village. After the death of his wife he commenced living with Robert B. Helm but in the spring of 1909 he went to live with his daughter in Kansas. He is a member of the Methodist Church, as was his wife and he has been a Republican from the organization of the party. Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. John T. Helm, namely: Robert B.; Phoebe Angeline Hestler of Coffeyville, Kansas; Mary M. Lemon, of Oklahoma; and H.F., Rachel E., Charles L. and John T., deceased.

Robert B. Helm remained with his parents until July 3, 1862 when he enlisted in Company E. Seventy-ninth Illinois Volunteer Infantry, Captain William A. Lowe and Colonel Guinup commanding. Mr. Helm participated in the engagements at Liberty Gap and Chicamauga as well as in numberous skirmishes, and was captured at the latter place, September 3, 1863, and sent first to Libby Prison for three months, and from there to Danville, Va. and then for a year confined at the infamous Andersonville Prison. Mere words cannot describe the agonies of mind and body which he and his comrades endured. On April 12, 1865, he was taken to the Union lines and released and in August 1865, he was mustered out and discharged at Camp Butler, Springfield, Illinois.

Returning home after this terrible experience Mr. Helm tried to take up his private life once more, and with the money he had received from the government in back pay bought 120 acres in Murdock Township. On Mar. 15, 1871, Mr. Helm married Sarah M. Reed, who was born in what is now Bowdre Township, Douglas County, a daughter of Captain Benjamin Franklin Reed, who was killed at Chickamauga. Mrs. Helm inherited 100 acres from her father's estate, and Mr. and Mrs. Helm have since added to their holdings until they now own over 800 acres in Murdock and Bowdre Townships eighty acres in Indiana and 120 acres near Mt. Vernon, Illinois. Mr. Helm has has improved practically all of his Douglas Co. land, tiled and fenced it and built good buildings. In 1900 he and his wife retired to Murdock Village. He recently traded his city property for Indiana land. He has a fine modern house, which is one of the finest in the county.

Nine children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Helm, namely: the first died in infancy, and Charles P. died at the age of four years; Ora, married Grace M. Overturf and lives on his 200 acre farm in Camargo Township; Rosa B. married William Overturf of Camargo Township; Mary Pearl married Earl Carmack of Murdock Twp.; Permelia C. married John P. Kent of Garrett Twp.; John F. married Florence Kearn and lives on the odl homestead of 120 acres, which he owns; Winifred M. married Russell Y. McIntyre and lives in Murdock Twp.; Robert B. Jr. at home attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Helm are members of the Methodist Church. He is a Republican in politics but is not tied to his party, voting for the man he deems best suited to the office. He is a member of Benjamin Franklin Reed Post G.A.R. of Tuscola, which was named for his wife's father. Mr. Helm was engaged in general farming and raising stock and grain was very successful and has accumulated a large amount of property. Both he and his wife belong to families that are highly respected in Douglas County. In 1903 Mr. Helm organized the Independent Telephone Co. which was organized in competition with the Bell Telephone Co. and this proved to be a good stroke of business. Mr. Helm is still a heavy stockholder in it.

M. A. OVERTURF

Farmer and stock dealer, was born in Deleware Co., Ohio, July 31, 1840, and is a son of William and Nancy (Fulk) Overturf. He is the third in a family of nine children and is of English descent. The parents of Mr. Overturf were natives of Ohio, and lived and died in that State. When Mr. Overturf was about twenty-one years of age, he began doing for himself. He was married March 18, 1862, to Miss Amanda C. Short. Mrs. Overturf is also a native of Deleware Co. Ohio. To this marriage have been born four children, viz., Nettie B., William, Grace, and Maud. In 1865, Mr. Overturf left his native state and came to Douglas Co., Ill., and settled where he now resides. Mr. Overturf owns nearly 500 acres of well improved land; his residence was built in 1881, and cost almost $2,000. Mr. Overturf is a Republican, and he and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He is one of the leading farmers of Camargo Township, and one of its prominent citizens.

REED

Clarke Williams, our subjects father, was born in Tenn. Sept. 3, 1820. In May, 1844, at the age of twenty-four years, he married Miss Margaret Reed, daughter of Daniel Reed, of Hickory Grove, Edgar Co., Ill. She was born in Bourbon Co., Ky., April 8, 1826, and died in Vermilion Co., Ill., Sept. 26, 1880. Her paternal grandfather was George Reed, who was a pioneer settler of Bourbon Co., Ky., and of German descent; her maternal grandfather was Benjamin Wayne, who was a nephew of Gen. Wayne, "Mad Anthony," of the Revolutionary struggle, and the "white man's chief that never sleeps," of the Indian wars, and whom the Indians also called "Blacksnake." The Waynes came from Yorkshire, England. (Appleton and Chambers' Cyclop.) They loved war and during the Revolution they fought at Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth, Stony Point and Yorktown. While "Mad Anthony" was Governor of the Northwestern Territory, they fought through the terror of the name of the "white man's chief that never sleeps" awed the savage long after Gen. Wayne was dead, yet for half a century to be a Wayne was death among the Indians. The late Capt. Frank Reed, of Douglas Co., was Mrs. Clarke Williams' brother, and he often evinced so many of the qualities of the Waynes that his family often called him "Mad Anthony".

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN REED

Reed, Captain Benjamin Franklin (deceased) for whom the Benjamin Franklin Reed Post, G.A.R. at Tuscola is named and who was one of the bravest and most gallant of the officers of the terrible struggle to which he fell a victum laid down his life for his country's sake at the battle of Chicamauga. Captain Reed was born in Bourbon County, Ky. a son of Daniel Reed. When but eight years old he was brought by his father to Edgar County Illinois. The latter founded the road house at Hickory Grove, between Newman and Indianola, which in its time sheltered so many of the great men of Illinois who passed along the highway on which it was located and became a well-known land mark.

When the Civil War broke out Benjamin Franklin Reed was prepared to offer his life to the cause he loved so dearly and enlisted in Company D 21st Illinois Volunteer Infantry being made First Lieutenant. On September 19, 1862, he was promoted to the rank of Captain on account of conspicuous bravery and gallantry. This was General Grant's original regiment and was the one with which he left the State to make his way to Appomattox, and thence (eventually) to the Presidential chair. Captain Reed was so seriously wounded at the battle of Chickamauga that he never recovered, dying in Sep. 1865, from the wounds then received.

Captain Reed married Catherine Barnett daughter of William Barnett, who lived in Camargo Township and was one of the early settlers of the county. Mrs. Robert T. Helm is one of his surviving children, the others being William D., of Hugo, and Benjamin Franklin, of Oklahoma.

When the G.A.R. Post of Tuscola was formed, with one accord its members named it after the hero of Douglas County, who did not live long enough after the fatal battle where he was wounded to become one of its members. His comrades many of whom have already joined him in the great army of eternity, felt it was but just that they should thus show their appreciation of his bravery and they have never regretted having paid this high honor to his memory.

REED - COUCHMAN

Craigen vs. Thorn - O.S. 73; N.S. 25 - Bill filed 1st April, 1796, Peter Thorn made a settlement on South Branch of Potomac, divided it between his sons, viz: Henry, Michael, Tobias and Lazarus, and then in 1758 died testate. Tobias died intestate 1764, leaving a widow Eve and an only son (infant) named Michael. Eve sold the land to Henry Crouchman, who died 1767 testate. Will dated 4th September, 1767, divising the land to his only son, John Adam Couchman, infant (who and Michael also was infant in 1733) who while still infant married Oratrix Phoebe Crouchman and while still under age made his will dated 4th February, 1782, divising the land Phoebe. He lived to be 21 and then died, leaving two children who died infants. Susannah Crouchman, who married John Wilson, and Margaret Crouchman, who married George Reid were sisters of John Adam Crouchman. Answer by Michael Thorn, a citizen of Fairfield Co., Ohio; He was moved over the Alleghanies before he was one year old. His mother married John Stradler, the land lies now in Hardy County. (Col.)Moses Hutton, aged seventy years, disposes in Hardy County 5th November, 1803: He lived near when Henry Crouchman lived on the land. William Heath, aged 45, deposed same place and time: He knew George Snyder who lived near the land and removed from it to Redstone about 31 or 32 years ago: Also knows Edward Williams for 35 years and who moved to Patterson's Creek 35 years ago and then to Kentucky, then to the Army, and then returned to Patterson's Creek. Anthony Baker deposes same time and place: For 42 years he has lived within three miles of the land. Issac Van Meter deposes 25th June, 1803: John Sebely, whose father was killed by the Indians and lived in South Branch Manor. George See, aged 66, deposes in Hardy County 15th May, 1798: Daniel Tevebaugh married widow of Henry Crouchman, Michael Moore deposes at Morgantown 11th June, 1799, aged 62 years, that he was a neighbor of Peter Thorn, Peter's eldest son Henry died, leaving widow who married Adam Harpole. Michael Thorn's father was killed by falling of a tree. Deponeny moved over the Alleghanies with Stradler. George Snyder, aged 56, deposes same time and place as above, that he knew the land before Tobias Thorn was married. Tobias married Eve Bryerly. Adam Harpole, aged 64 years, deposes at Moorefield 24th March, 1798, that about 43 years ago Tobias Thorn was in possession of the land. Adam married Henry Thorn's widow. Adam Crouchman of Hampshire County, will dated 21st February, 1782, proved in Hardy County 17th March, 1786. Wife and father-in-law George Lee (See?). Peter Thorn, will dated 30th January, 1738, proved in Hampshire 14th February, 1758. Tobias and Lazarus shall administer and provide for their mother, but Christian's cattle to be sold separately. THE TEAGARDEN FAMILY

It was to such surroundings that the Teagardens, Hupps, and Bumgarners came about the year 1765. The history of the Teagardens in America begins with the arrival of Abraham Teagarden I, on the ship "Harle," in the year 1736. With him were the sons, Abraham Teagarden II, William and George Teagarden, the latter two not old enough to take the Oath of Allegiance, or to be listed among the ship's passengers. The family remained for a time in the vicinity of Philadelphia, but eventually, like so many of their Palatinate and German friends, drifted down into Maryland, where Abraham Teagarden II was living in Frederick County on December 12, 1757, when John Owens, the Indian trader at Fort Pitt, sold him land in the Tehmile Country, described as being between Enoch's Run and near the Mouth of Muddy Creek. (Washington County, Penna. Deed Book 1-A-214.) It is not certain just when this Abraham Teagarden first came into the Western Country, but it must have been shortly after this date, for General Boquet records that Teagarden passed Fort Littleton on his way to Fort Pitt, with four horses, on January 30, 1759, from which trip he returned from Fort Pitt, by way of Bedford, on February 28th of the same year. (Boquet Mss. 21644, Part 1, pp. 35 and 62). Abraham Teagarden II was one of the sutlers employed by Boquet at the time Boquet lists John Owens as one of the men living in the Lower Town at Fort Pitt. We may assume that Abraham Teagarden II's duties took him over both the new Forbes Road and the older Braddock Road through Fort Burd, where Boquet had a post under Sergeant Angus McDonald. In this way Teagarden became acquainted with the Redstone Country, where he finally settled at the present town of Brownsville. Here he built and operated a ferry over the Monongahela River, and lived for many years with other members of his family.

Abraham Teagarden II was born in Germany about 1718 and was married about 1744. It is a family tradition that after living to a good old age, at the site of his first settlement at Brownsville, he removed to the Tenmile and passed his last days in a cabin built for him by his son, George, on land long known as "Teagarden's Bottoms," situated where the present Pitt Gas Coal town now stands. His known children were:

1. William Teagarden, who was born January 17, 1746, at Philadelphia. He died in Richhill Township, Greene County, Pennsylvania about 1813. His wife, whom he married about 1774, was Bethia Craig.

2. Mary Teagarden, born April 15, 1747, in Frederick County, Maryland. She is said to have married John Shryock.

3. Abraham Teagarden III, born about 1748, died in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, about 1783. His wife was a widow, Mary Elizabeth (.....) Parker. He was a member of Captain James Leech's Company, Westmoreland County Militia, and served in the Frontier Rangers. (Penna. Archives, Series III, Vol. 23, pp. 328.)

4. George Teagarden, born June 29, 1750 (some say 1744), died in Greene County, Pennsylvania, about 1815. His wife was Rachel Pribble, born June 15, 1761, whose will gives the names of their children.

5. Aaron Teagarden, born 1754, died in Ohio in 1833. His wife was Margaret Debel or Debolt.

6. Moses Teagarden, born in 1762, died in Ohio in 1844. His wife was Mary Huston. He served in the Frontier Rangers with Abijah McClain and Thomas Hughes. Was probably in Lieutenant Richard Johnson's Company. (Penna. Archives, Series III, Vol.23, pp. 325).

7. Thomas Teagarden. No record is available.

8. Elizabeth Teagarden (?) married George Debolt of Fayette County. He died there about 1828.

TEAGARDEN

This name is found in Prussia, and in the United States as Tegart, Tiegarden, Teegarden, Teegardin, Tigirtin, Theegarten and Teagarden. The earliest mention of the family in America is 1737, and is found in the Penn. Arcives, 2nd series, Vol. XVII pages 121 and 122, under "Names of Foreigners who took the oath of Allegiance to the Province and State of Pennsylvania, 1727 - 1775." In "List of Foreigners Imported in the ship "Harte" Ralph Harte from Rotterdam" is found "Abraham Tiegarden, senior, age forty-eight," and "Abraham Tiegarden, age eighteen," father and son. Their names were given as Tegart and indexed as Tiegarden. They qualified Sept. 1, 1736. These two immigrants, the first of the name to come to America, were born in Prussia, where others of the name yet reside.

I Abraham Tiegarden, mentioned above, located in Philadelphia, Pa. He was born in 1688 and is probably buried in Philadelphia. Dr. Jane Teagarden, his descendant, has in her possession a facsimile of the coat of arms borne in Prussia, displaying an anchor and crossed swords.

II Abraham, son of Abraham I Tiegarden, was born in Prussia in 1718. He came to America with his father in 1736, settling first in Philadelphia where children were born, and is supposed later to have lived in Maryland or Virginia. He married, in 1744, Lady Mary Parker, of Annapolis, Maryland, who was born and lived for several years in England. It is known that 6 sons and 1 daughter were born to Abraham and Lady Mary Tiegarden.

SETTLERS OF EDGMONT

John Baker, a brother of Joseph, died in Philadelphia in 1685, and left 4 daughters - Rebecca, Mary, Dorothy and Sarah. In 1684, Roger Jackson, Mary, Hannah and Sarah Baker appear as purchasers from William Penn in Edgmont. Mary married William Coebourn, Hannah to Francis Yarnall and Sarah to Charles Whitacre.

Phillip Yarnall, with his brother, Francis, came from Cloynes, in Worcestershire, England. They first settled in Springfield twp., adjoining George Maris' land, about a mile from Springfield Friends meeting house on the road to Clifton. This land was conveyed to Francis, Oct. 17, 1683, and for several years they were members of Darby Monthly Meeting of Friends. Francis married Hannah Baker of Edgmont, and purchased five hundred and ten acres of land adjoining Edgmont line, in Willistown twp. Extending from Crum Creek westward nearly two miles, a large portion of which is still held by his descendants. He was a member of the Provincial Assembly, and died in Willistown in 1731. [1]

Francis Yarnall, probably immigrated with his brother Phillip in 1684, and at first settled in Springfield twp. on rented land. He was for a time a member of Darby Monthly Meeting of Friends by subsequently belonged to that of Chester. In 1686 he married Hannah Baker, a daughter as is believed of Joseph Baker, of Edgmont. In 1708 he resided in Chester borough. He was a man of considerable influence in the community and in 1711 he represented Chester County in the Provincial Assembly. His children were, Sarah, John, Peter, Moses, Francis, Joseph, Amos and Mordecai. [2]

BAKER - YARNALL

Joseph Baker, with his wife, Mary migrated from England as early as 1685 and settled on a large tract of land in Edgemont. They had several children at the time of their arrival. Of these, Hannah intermarried with Francis Yarnall and Dorothy with Phillip Yarnall. He devised all his land in Edgmont to his son, John, born in this country in 1686. Joseph was in membership with Friends and frequently concerned in the business of their meetings. He was also an influential man in the community and represented Chester Co. in the Provincial Assembly. He died in 1716 leaving his wife to survive him. His brother John, who died in Philadelphia in 1685, came from Edgmont, in Shropshire, England, which was doubtless, the transatlantic residence of Joseph, and hence the name of the twp. in which he settled.

ROBERT E. BARNETT

The principle comprehended in the foregoing remarks was recognized by Mr. Barnett's father, one of the old pioneers of Vermilion County. He raised 6 sons and 2 daughters, and gave his family the best literary education possible, considering means and facilities; but above all, trained them up to recognize the duties and obligations of a Christian life and the necessity of working industriously to secure an honest living. James, the eldest, and Robert, on attaining the age of manhood, both engaged in teaching. William R., John M., George W. and Elbert commenced life as farmers. The latter two are now living in California, whither they went in 1851 during the first great gold excitement of that State; John is a prominent farmer of Douglas County, Illinois. William died in Vermillion County. The two daughters are still living, Sarah, the wife of Dr. Thomas Heywood, of Indianola, one of the oldest physicians of the County, and one of its early representatives in the State Legislature and Catherine, the widow of Jesse Morris, of Edgar County. These children were all born in Bourbon County, Ky., and all came with their parents to Vermilion County., Illinois, in the summer of 1828, with the exception of James who was teaching at the time in Davis County, Indiana, and who afterwards settled in Vermilion Co., and died in Carroll Township.

Mr. Barnett was born April 15th, 1806. He early studied the law got out a license, but not liking the practice of this profession, he never made his debut as a barrister, but turned his attention to other business. He taught his first term of school of 1829, in this County, commencing in the fall -- a subscription school. He taught part of another term the following season, then went to Eugene, Vermilion Co., Indiana, and engaged as clerk in the dry goods store of J. & S. S. Collett, at $12.50 per month. A short time after commencing business in Eugene, Mr. Barnett met his future wife and gave way to fate and Cupid, and secured as a companion a lady who has proven herself a treasure rich and invaluable and who still lives to brighten his home and cheer the evening of life. This marriage was celebrated Aug. 16, 1831. Miss Rebecca Moore was daughter of Thomas Moore by his wife, formerly Miss Rebecca Albertson. Six children have been born as the fruits of this union, Viz. Jane, Robert, Alice, Thomas, George, and John.

According to the best recollections, Mr. Barnett's great grandfather was a native of Ireland, or at least, born a short time after the arrival of his parents in this country. It is thought that he only raised one son, James, Mr. Barnett's grandfather, who married a Miss O'connell, an Irish lady. He spent the principal part of his life in Pennsylvania, where he died. He raised a large family as follows: Robert, George, James, Moses, John, Jane, Susan, Nancy, Rachel, and Margaret. These, after the death of their father, all came with their mother to Bourbon Co., Ky. George, Mr. Barnett's father, married while in Pennsylvania a Miss Delilah Davis, a lady of Welsh lineage. As already remarked, they with the principal part of their children arrived in Illinois in 1828. They both died in this County, he in 1841 and she some five years later. Their remains rest in the Lebanon Graveyard near Indianola. He was prominent and active citizen of Vermilion County, and was one of its early representatives in the Legislature.

Dear Mrs. McNutt,

May I present John and Elizabeth Reed, parents of our George? I hate to admit that I have had this information since last summer and haven't sent it on to you before now; but I have not done a lick of work (genealogically speaking) since I returned from my vacation, I'm sorry this has been so delayed, but I hope I may be forgiven.

The first Will Book of Hampshire Co., W. Va. is lost. On page 121 of Book 2 is a report on the "estate of John Reed deceased in account with Elizabeth Reed Admin." April 26, 1785. Deed Book 3 shows (p. 17) that John Reed of Hampshire Co. bought 151 acres on the south side of the South Branch of the Potomac from Philip Ross, Aug. 14, 1771. For this he paid "fifty five pounds current money in full consideration of the above." George Reed also acquired land in Nov. 1779 (Deed Book 5, p. 68). Here is what I copied from p. 202 of the same book: Mar. 6, 1780, Lord Fairfax to George Reed Hampshire County part of the Manor of the South Branch in the county of Hampshire and adjoining the land of Major Randall on Reed Island ---ten acres to said George Reed for and during the natural lives of said George Reed, John Reed, his brother and Abram Reed, son of said John, and the longest liver of them renewable unto said George Reed and his heirs -- subject to rents and conditions--lease--rate of twenty shillings Sterling money a hundred for said ten acres yearly and every year during continuance of this lease--

That is all I found in Hampshire County. I had better luck in Hardy. George Reed and wife Margaret of Hardy county sold land April 14, 1786. (Deed Book 1, p. 12) P. 38: "George Reed of the State of Frankland in the County of Washington, Farmer--Appoints my trusty friend John Wilson of State aforesaid and county of Green, Gentlemen. my true and lawful attorney--to ask--from Elizabeth Reed widow of John Reed deceased of the county of Hardy--July 10 in the ninth year of the commonwealth and in the year 1786--".

P. 134: On Sept. 10, 1787, George and Margaret sold land which came to him as oldest son and heir of John Reed deceased. Similar records in 1790 and 1795.

Deed Book 4, p. 24: George Reed, Bourbon County, Ky. to Daniel Tevebaugh all estate right, title and interest which George Reed and Margaret his wife now have or hereafter may have by virtue of the last will and testament of Henry Couchman deceased...agreed by said Daniel Tevebaugh that if right of heirs of Michael Wease should prove better than that of Henry all the paper and bonds from Adam Harpole to said Henry Couchman..Sept. 28, 1795

Daniel Tevebaugh was the stepfather of Margaret Couchman, according to Chalkley's account of the Craigen vs. Thorn lawsuit, I think I sent you a copy of that. Do you suppose your Daniel R. was named for his stepgrandpa?

The will of Michael Wease, written June 15, 1780 and proved Aug. 8, 1780 in Hampshire Co., has this at the end: N.B. Whereas ther is a dispute in law now subsisting between Daniel Tevebaugh and me concerning land my desire is that my executor may sell (?) said land or sue for as he may think fit.

Hampshire County marriage records before 1824 have been lost. The first Reed marriage recorded in Hardy County was that of Anthony Reed who married Mary Lusis (?) in 1795. I was disappointed at not finding when George married Margaret Couchman: but surely I have proved without a doubt that Margaret C. was the mother of Jesse Reed, born 1798. What do you think?

Wife Margaret in 1786 could have been someone else, but wife Margaret in 1795, with an interest in the estate of Henry Couchman, could surely be no one other than Henry's daughter. What do you think?

There are some still later records in Hardy County that I did not have time to look at. I had promised myself that I would go back this summer, but that seems to be out of the question now. Maybe I can induce the clerk to copy them for us. Now I am wanting to know more about John and Elizabeth -- who she was, and where they came from. Now isn't that Typical? Just never satisfied.

Did you get proof of any military service of George Reed? If so, I'd like to have a copy.

My Dear Mrs. Smith

Here is what information I have: George Reed, Clintonville Precinct, Bourbon Co., Ky., was between 90 and 100 years of age when the census was taken in 1840. He died about 1844 or 1845. In Bourbon Co. are recorded some deeds make in 1817 in which are mentioned his wife Margaret and these children: sons John (eldest), Jesse, Henry and Daniel; daughter Mary Ann, married James Tillett in 1797; Magdalin, m. John Barber in 1813; Susannah; Elizabeth, m. Wesley Arrasmith in 1805; Peggy, m. Thomas Barber; Sarah, m. Abraham Starr in 1812; and Catherine, who I think was the Catherine Reed who m. Armstrong Dawson in 1843; These dates I found in the Bourbon Co. Records.

YARNALL - TOMLINSON

The records of the Warrington M. meeting, Society of Friends at Newberry, York Co. Pa. shows that a Jesse Yarnall married out of Unity with the Society before 1775, July 8th, and he is listed as having left these parts before that date. Since Jesse Yarnall married out of Unity, there would be no record of his marriage in the Quaker records. Nor would there be a civil record as the county did not record marriages before 1880. (1)

WAYNE

818 E. College Ave.
Appleton, Wisconsin
March 29, 1940

My dear Mrs. Johnson

When I opened my April issue of the National Historical Magazine last evening my eye fell upon the name of "Wayne."

Now I believe I must have some of the information you ask for and possibly you have some that I lack. I have a Benjamin Wayne as one of my ancestors. But according to our records my great grandfather Benjamin Wayne was born in 1774 and died in 1852. His wife was Nancy Tankersley born in 1779 and died in 1863. This Nancy Tankersley was the daughter of a Virginia plantation owner and had quite a number of slaves in her own name. But she gave these up to please Benjamin Wayne according to our family tradition.

Now this Benjamin Wayne was the son of another Benjamin Wayne from Fairfax Co. in Virginia who was born about 1752 and died about 1832. His wife name was Mary but I do not know what her surname was. And there was a John Wayne somewhere in the line but I do not know where.

You have the name Nancy Tankesty but I feel that it must be the one we have spelled Tankersley.

I hope this information may help you and I will be glad to know if you have anything more.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. E.L.) Maude L. Bolton

WAYNE (CON'T)

April 4, 1940

Dear Mrs. Johnson,

Your letter came today and I was much interested in your information. We surely belong to the same family of Wayne's.

My grandmother Nancy Ann Wayne married Silas Perry Luce and I believe the Perry line is connected with Oliver H. Perry. However that is still to be worked on.

Nancy Ann Wayne was born 5/30 - 1819 died Oct. 12, 1898. I did not know the names of all her sisters and brothers; but in her old album there is a picture of Churchill Wayne and of John Wayne and his wife.

I got some of my information from a cousin (that I have never seen) in Iowa and have her national number; so if you wish the information, I can give it to you as it was accepted.

She states that Nancy Tankersley Wayne and Benjamin Wayne are buried near Georgetown, Wisconsin and the dates on the tombstones are Benjamin Wayne born 1774 died 1852 Nancy Tankersley Wayne born 1779 died 1863. Then the father of this Benjamin Wayne, also Benjamin Wayne came from Va. and was born about 1752 and died about 1832.

An uncle of mine met old Uncle Churchill down in St. Louis about 1900 or soon after. He wrote me quite a number of things that Uncle Churchill told him but I loaned the letter to some one and it was never returned.

I am sure there must be a connection with Gen. Anthony Wayne but have never been able to find out about it. I wish I were going to Washington .....

You say you have a picture of Nancy Tankersley. Would it be possible for me to get a copy of this picture. I would be glad to pay for it.

Well, I will be very much interested to know if you find any further information in Washington.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. E.L.) Maude L. Bolton

HENRY SPRAGG

Henry Spragg was born in Wayne Co., Pennsylvania, April 6, 1811 and departed this life at his late home in New Concord September 6, 1896, aged 85 years and 5 months. He came with his parents to Ohio when but 12 years old and since that time has resided in Muskingum County, except about 18 years in Coshocton county. He was married to Marie C. Johnson Oct. 15, 1839, of which union there were nine children, four girls and five boys, seven of whom still survive him, only one of whom Mrs. Hattie Miller, is permitted to be present on this sad occasion. He has resided with his daughter, Mrs. Miller since July 1886 or a little more than ten years. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church at Harmony appointment Adamsville circuit, in August 1842. His conversion occurred at a Camp Meeting near Bethel M.E. church and under the ministerial labors of Rev. Woodruff. He afterwards removed his membership to the Maysville church, afterwards to Plainfield, after this to Otsego M.P. church where he continued until the winter of 1892, when he removed his membership to the New Concord M.E. church where he continued until his death. He has been so feeble for some time that he has been confined to his home for almost a year, or since the 29 day of last September. The last time he was permitted to attend church was at the comunion services of our last quarterly meeting of last year, which occurred in July 1895. His companion preceded him to the future world a little more than ten years ago, having died March 3, 1886. He was a man of great industry and endurance especially when in the strength of his years. He was honest and upright in all his dealings and was widely known and highly esteemed by all who knew him. His long Christian life of more than 54 years was careful and consistent. He attended church often, in his later life, under afflicting circumstances, he seemed anxious to attend when practicable. He was patient during affliction and passed away in great peace.

The funeral services were held in the M.E. church Tuesday at 9 a.m. and were conducted by the pastor, Dr. W.H. Dye. Interment was made in the East Plainfield Cemetery in Cochocton count. - Cambridge, O., Ex. The decease was the father of H.K. Spragg, of this city, and Mrs. J.H. Morris, of Harmony neighborhood.

OBITUARY OF LATE CHARLES J. JOHNSON

Prominent Citizen of Broadlands and The Ridge Died at His Home in Broadlands on the 26th Instant After Illness of Long Duration.--- Funeral Held at Fairfield Presbyterian Church Tuesday Afternoon.

Charles J. Johnson, the subject of this sketch, was born at Gana, Sweden, May 17th, 1849, and departed this life Jan. 26th, 1919, at his home in Broadlands, Ill.

He came to America in September, 1868; then a young man of nineteen years of age. He stopped for a while near Paxton, Ill., later came to what was known as Broadlands. Here he was engaged as a farm hand. He lived to see what was then a wild prairie transformed into one of the most fertile and beautiful farming sections of Central Illinois.

He was united in marriage to Barbara Mack, at Danville, Ill., March 21st, 1878, and settled on what is known as the C. J. Johnson's homestead in Douglas County, near Broadlands, Ill.

To this union three children came to bless their home, viz.: Anna, Joe and Willie. Here with his devoted wife and children the happy days of his life were spent.

Here by honest toil, good management, and a determined will they built them a comfortable home and he became one of the most prominent and prosperous farmers in this part of the state. He was a good neighbor, always ready to lend a helping hand.

In 1911, after deciding to retire from farming, he built a modern home in the village of Broadlands and moved into his new home on Jan. 2nd.

His parents, true to their religious faith, dedicated him to God in the beautiful rite of infant baptism and later he was confirmed in the Swedish Luthern church and when he came to this country, he brought his church certificate with him as there weren't any churches of that faith in the community, where he decided to make his home, he placed his church membership in the Fairfield Presbyterian church in 1880.

Brother Johnson was faithful and regular in attendance and gave liberally of his means for the support of the gospel. Hishome was open to the ministers; a home where a weary servant found all the comforts of life. He often expressed himself to his pastor wishing he could speak the English language better so he could take a more active part in the church work.

After moving to Broadlands he attended the M. E. church as long as his health would permit. About three years ago his health began to fail and he gradually grew weaker and all that medical skill and loving care and attention could do were done for him, but without avail. He fell asleep and passed away to the Mansion beyond where sickness is not known.

OBITUARY OF LATE CHARLES J. JOHNSON (CON'T.)

In the passing of Brother Johnson there is a vacancy in the home and community that will be greatly felt by all who knew him. As a citizen he ever stood for the things that were for the betterment of the community. He was a member of the M. W. A. lodge of Broadlands.

He leaves to mourn his loss his faithful and devoted wife, his kind and loving children, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Laverick, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson and one grandson, Master Charles Morris Johnson, all of Broadlands, and many neighbors and friends. It was a joy and comfort to him that few parents enjoy, to have his children all nestled about him and all with their mother were near him when the death angel visited the home to bear his spirit to its eternal home.

God calls our loved ones, but we loose not wholly all that He has given; they live on earth in thoughts and deeds as truly as in Heaven.

To the stricken family let me say that hearts full of love and sympathy are beating all around you to-day, and willing hands are ready to minster to your every want. But best of all, Christ is nearer and dearer to you than all the world. You weep not as those who have no hope. Your loved one is at rest. He has made the preparation. Live faithful until the summons calls you one by one and as you cross the chilly waters of death, you will enjoy a grand reunion on the sunny banks of sweet deliverance, to dwell with Jesus forever.

The funeral services took place at the Fairfield Presbyterian church, 4 miles north of Newman on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. W. McKinney, of Divernon, Ill., a former pastor of the deceased as well as a personal friend, and were largely attended.

The floral offerings of friends and neighbors were many and was only a slight token of high regard in which the deceased was held by those who knew him.

The music was appropriate and very pretty, adding to the solemnity of the occasion.

The remains were laid to rest in the beautiful Fairfield cemetery.

MRS. JOHNSON IS LAID TO REST

Funeral services for Mrs. Barbara Johnson, a pioneer resident of this community, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ira Laverick, southeast of Broadlands, March 20, 1930, were held at the Fairfield Presbyterian church, southeast of Broadlands, last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. J. W. McKinney, of Monon, Ind., and Rev. C. M. Temple, pastor of the local Methodist church, officiating. Both paid a touching tribute to her memory, Mr. McKinney having known her since he started preaching as a young man at Fairfield, and Mr. Temple having been her heighbor and pastor since coming to Broadlands over two years ago. No obituary was read at the rites.

Mr. Geo. W. Telling, of Danville, sang "The End of the Road," "Shadows," and "No Disappointment in Heaven," with Mrs. Harlan Six presiding at the piano. At the request of the deceased, Joe Johnson, Will Johnson, Morris Johnson, Ira Laverick, Lou Mack and Harvey Six acted as casket bearers.

A large number of friends from far and near were present at the last sad rites. There were many beautiful floral offerings, the 14 flower bearers being unable to carry all of them.

The remains were laid to rest beside that of her husband in the beautiful Fairfield Memorial cemetery, Mrs. Harlan Six and Mr. Telling singing "Asleep in the Arms of Jesus," as the casket was being lowered into the grave.

Mrs. Johnson, whose maiden name was Barbara Mack, was born in Bohemia, and came to this country at the age of 17 to make her home. She first settled in Chicago and a few months later came to this community where she met and married Chas. Johnson on March 21, 1878. They settled on a farm southeast of Broadlands where they made their home until 1911 when they built a new home and moved to Broadlands.

Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Fairfield Presbyterian church and was a faithful attendant there until moving to Broadlands when she became a constant attendant of the Methodist church until the time of her illness. Mother Johnson, as she was known to many, was always first to visit the sick and usually carried some delicacy or flowers to cheer the pathway of those ill or in trouble. She will be greatly missed in the community where she has done so much to cheer and brighten the pathway of those around her.

Mrs. Johnson was first taken ill about a year ago and last August went to the home of her daughter, where she was most tenderly cared for until Thursday morning March 20, when she quietly and peacefully passed to the great beyond, at the age of 73 years and 23 days. She had made her funeral arrangements before undergoing an operation in January, which were faithfully carried out.

MRS. JOHNSON IS LAID TO REST (CON'T.)

She leaves to mourn their loss, two sons, J. E. Johnson of Champaign; Will Johnson of Danville; and one daughter Mrs. Anna Laverick, of Broadlands; also two grandchildren, Morris Johnson of Champaign, and Marjorie Johnson, Danville.

Her husband, the late Chas. J. Johnson, died Jan. 26, 1919.

Among those from a distance attending the funeral were Lou Mack and Frank Hrdlicka, of Sibley, Mr. And Mrs. J. E. Johnson and son, Morris, Champaign; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnson, and daughter Marjorie, Danville; Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Coolley, Mr. and Mrs. S. Shaw, Brocton; Dr. and Mrs. Richard Stevenson, Lebanon, Ind.; Will Lacy, Miss Emma Lacy, Paris; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Honnold all of Kansas; Dr. C. Northcot, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stahl, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jorgenson. Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Prof. and Mrs. C. W. Gooding, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn, Mrs. D. W. Willis, Mrs. S. D. Taylor, Mrs. Virginia White, Mrs. Mary Jacobsen, J. T. Smith, Chas. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Divan, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Williamson, all of Champaign; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, J. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Will Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Telling of Danville; Mrs. Maude Kimball of Metcalf, Mrs. Hetty Alexander, Sidell; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Overturf, daughter, Miss Janet, Camargo; Mrs. Millard Kesterson of Waveland, Ind.; Mrs. Geo. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Will Aders of Villa Grove; S. E. Dillavou, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. DEATH CALLS ANOTHER

Mrs. M. A. Overturf for Many Years a Resident of Camargo and Neighborhood, Passed Over to Her Final Reward.

Amanda Caroline Short was born July 15th 1839 in Delaware County, Ohio a daughter of Peter and Sarah Short, one of a family of six children, only one of whom, a sister, Mrs. Cutler of Auburn, Ind. survives her.

March 3rd, 1863 she was united in marriage to Miles A. Overturf to which union were born four children: Nettie, wife of W.P. Plowman of Murdock, Wm. Overturf, Grace, wife of O.M. Helm, Maude, wife of C.E. Dragoo, all of whom,with the bereaved husband, and a large circle of grand children and other relatives and friends mourn her departure.

In 1865 the family moved to Douglas County, Ill., and lived on the farm near Camargo until in 1903 when, because of failing health and the children having established homes for themselves, the deceased with her husband retired from active farm life and moved into Camargo. Mrs. Overturf was optomistic in the extreme, always looking at the bright side of life; was cheerful, sunshiny in disposition; a joy and pleasure to all who came into her home, according to Paul's standard in Gal. 6:2. "Bear ye one anothers burdens, and so fullfill the law of Christ." She was a Christian and fullfilled Christ's law.

It was her constant effort to relieve others of suffering and burdens, even to the extent of covering up and hiding away her own troubles and sufferings. The poet truely voiced her sentiments when he wrote:

"Strength for today's all that we need, for there never will be a tomorrow; tomorrow will prove but another day of joy and sorrow."

Robert J. Burdette certainly had known such mothers as Mrs. Overturf when he said "I have known many women who have brought the picture of Christ into my thought, as I noted their daily work, smiling over the humblest service.

She was a member of the Methodist church for over 35 years, and her life and character speak more forcibly than tongue or pen. She was devoted to her family; a true, loving wife and companion; as a mother, none could be more loving, thoughtful, tender and self-sacrificing. She was a patient sufferer forover three years and yet very active to the very last assuming the duties of the home. Only four weeks ago she went with her husband to pay a last farewell to the old farm home seeming to realize that her sojourn here on would soon come to an end. She was loth to talk much about death and Heaven, but several years ago just before leaving the farm, to move into town, she requested her daughter, Mrs. Plowman, to see that her funeral was preached from the text, "In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."

DEATH CALLS ANOTHER (CON'T.)

At the very last she gave emphatic evidence of a peaceful entrance into the rest prepared for the pure in heart, and after kissing the children a last good bye, she said "I am almost over." The end came peacefully at 2:30 a.m., Saturday April 9th 1910, aged 70 years 8 months and 25 days.

The songs "Beautiful Isle," "No Night There" and Sometime We'll Understand," were rendered by a quartet composed by Misses Lyra Clements and Effie Hall, and Messrs. G.C. Jeffers and Al Hayward. They also sang "Rock of Ages" at the grave. The pallbearers were: John Kent, John Wiseman, Burt Berry, Earl Carmack, Eli Wiley, Geo. Anderson. Rev. Swartz, of Hoopeston, assisted by Rev. Cusick had charge of the funeral services. Interment in the Camargo cemetery.

WILL OF JESSE YARNALL

In the name of God, Amen, I Jesse Yarnall of Harrison Co. and state of Ky. being weak in body but sound in mind and memory thanks be to God and calling to mind the shortness of life and certainty of death and that it is appointed for all men to die, I do hereby make my last will and testament, my soul I resume to God who give it and my body I wish to be given a decent burial in a christian like manner and all reasonable charges to be paid out of my estate. First then the balance both real and personal to be disposed of in the following manner.

First, I give and bequeath to my son John Yarnall, the place where on he now lives including one half the said bottom together with his improvements.

Secondly, I give and bequesth to my son Samuel Yarnall, the place where on he now lives together with the improvements where James Smith lived to include the half of that land commonly known by the name of the Beach Bottom, extending out to Roders old East side line.

Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my son Isaac Yarnall the plantation where on he now lives including all the land lying on the east side of the river as it was laid off by James Coleman, also my wagon, iron toothharrow and cutting borge.

Fourthly, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Ann Yarnall one mare, one cow, four sheep to take her choice out of each stock all of which creatures are to be kept winter and summer on the place and will be taken care of by my son Isaac Yarnall for his use at his own expense and if said cow should die Isaac is to furnish her milk, also another is to be kept in like manner. She is to have that part of the home that I now live and lodge in being the north east end with the loft belonging thereunto entirely for the use of her and my daughter Sally. Also a sufficient quantity of firewood ready cut and hald to the door. Also the whole of the flax on the place, both cleaned and uncleaned for the use of my wife and daughter Sally. Also two hives of bees her choice out of that stock with the second row from the ground and eight now empty hives for her own use and my daughter Sally. They are also to have free priviledge of all the first on the place of every kind to take what is for her own use and one barrel of good cider each year that the orchard hits with, one third of the garden also Isaac is to furnish them with four hundred weight of good wheat flour, four bushels of corn and two hundred and fifty weight of pork with salt sufficient to save it, the same to be paid annually and if in case the above named Isaac Yarnall should fail in performing what is enjoined on him above to his mother and she see cause to leave him he shall be compelled to pay her any sum of money she shall demand not exceeding thirty six dollars a year, which the said Isaac is bound to comply with to his mother during her natural life or widowhood, but if Sally should marry and leave her mother then the said Isaac is to be freed from one half of the above flour, corn and pork.

WILL OF JESSE YARNALL (CON'T)

Fifthly, I give and bequeath to my son David Yarnall the place where on he now lives containing one hundred and twenty nine acres by survey and in case the said David Yarnall should lose the land above named he is to have the same quantity of bottom land out of the bond I have on Samuel McMillan for the improvements and diference of land.

Sixthly, I give and bequeath to my daughter Sally Yarnall six hundred dollars to take her first choice out of my cash notes and bonds to that amount together with the interest there unto belonging. Also Sally is to have one brown mare commonly called hers before with her bridle and saddle. Also all the house hold and kitchen furniture with the loom and tacking. Also one new case of new drawers which is due from Charles Relso. However my wife is to have the use of one bed, bedding and a Bureau during her life or widowhood thento belong to Sally. I also give and bequeath to my daughter Sally one Negro woman named Sal, which is also to be and remain in the service of my wife during her life and widowhood then to go to my daughter Sally.

Seventhly, I give and bequeath to my son Joseph Yarnall two hundred dollars to take his choice next to that amount after Sally has chose out hers. My executors here to fore named to draw for him or make the choice and the balance of my cash notes and bonds is to be divided equally between my three sons to wit, John, Samuel and David after Samuel takes out three hundred dollars on account of his land being in dispute to be divided by executors. Also my man George with a copper still with the balance of my moveable property to be sold and equally divided between John, Samuel, and David only such part as has already been named or shall be here after mentioned. Also my will is that my son Issac coming or moving on the place where I now live shall have all the crop of wheat and rye now in the ground belonging to me also the whole of what grain and hay as in the barn and what hay is in the meadow. Also all the corn to go to my son David of the best there is, also my desire is that my three sons John, Samuel and David shall have all that land that I have a bond on Samuel McMillan for which is 1280 acres after there is 129 acres of bottom land which was in exchange between land David lives on and also about a hundred acres in exchange of land Samuel lives on, the balance to be equally divided between the afore said John, Samuel and David, also my trade notes and accounts to be equally divided the aforesaid John, Samuel and David.

Lastly I do appoint Wm. Benjamin Hodge Sim and Iasiah Griffith my whole and sole executors of my last will and testament ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament. In witness I here unto set my hand and seal this eighth day of April in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and nine.
